» 13 † In that he saith, A new covenant, he hath made the first old. Now that which decayeth and waxeth old is ready to vanish away.

GALATIANS 5:13-14

» 13 † For, brethren, ye have been called unto liberty; only use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by love serve one another.

» 14 † For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this; Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

James 2:8

If ye fulfil the royal law according to the scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well:

The Old and New Covenants

HEBREWS 9:1-2

- » 1 † Then verily the first covenant had also ordinances of divine service, and a worldly sanctuary.
- » 2 † For there was a tabernacle made; the first, wherein was the candlestick, and the table, and the shewbread; which is called the sanctuary.

Hebrews 9:3-5

- » 3 And after the second veil, the tabernacle which is called the Holiest of all;
- » 4 Which had the golden censer, and the ark of the covenant overlaid round about with gold, wherein was the golden pot that had manna, and Aaron's rod that budded, and the tables of the covenant;
- » 5 And over it the cherubims of glory shadowing the mercyseat; of which we cannot now speak particularly.

THE HOLY GHOST

HEBREWS 9:6-8

» 6 † Now when these things were thus ordained, the priests went always into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God.

» 7 † But into the second went the high priest alone once every year, not without blood, which he offered for himself, and for the errors of the people:

» 8 † The Holy Ghost this signifying, that the way into the holiest of all was not yet made manifest, while as the first tabernacle was yet standing:

» 9 † Which was a figure for the time then present, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, that could not make him that did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience;

» 10 † Which stood only in meats and drinks, and divers washings, and carnal ordinances, imposed on them until the time of reformation.

130 Oh, you--you try to say, "Oh, I'm saved, I go to church." Don't you worry, you wait till that deathbed comes, and you'll know it's different. Your conscience tells you. Something inside of you tells you you're wrong. See? You know if you'd die you couldn't meet a holy God. As we seen Him last night, even the holy Angels have to veil their face to stand before Him. How are you going to stand outside the Blood of Jesus Christ to veil you?

HEBREWS 9:11-12

» 11 † But Christ being come an high priest of good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building;

» 12 † Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us.

» 13 † For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh:

» 14 † How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?

How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?

EPHESIANS 2:8-11

» 8 † For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God:

» 9 † Not of works, lest any man should boast.

» 10 † For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them.

HEBREWS 9:15-17

» 15 † And for this cause he is the mediator of the new testament, that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance.

» 16 † For where a testament is, there must also of necessity be the death of the testator.

» 17 † For a testament is of force after men are dead: otherwise it is of no strength at all while the testator liveth.

Inheritance by predestination. I inherited something.

What inheritance? There had to be somebody leave me an inheritance. Why, you say, "Jesus left you an inheritance." Beg your pardon? Jesus never left me an inheritance; Jesus never left you an inheritance; He only came down and paid for your inheritance, brought you to your inheritance. But your name was put on the Lamb's Book of Life before the foundation of the world. God give you your inheritance. Your inheritance was first. Jesus only come... A lot...

Here's the way they try to make it, "God said, 'Well, there's a lot of people lost; I don't want them... be saved, so I'll send Jesus down and perhaps maybe He'll... somebody feel sorry, and know what I've done and--and get saved.'" Oh, mercy. I wouldn't run my office like that, even as poor as I do run it sometimes then. I wouldn't do it like that. How about God?

« E-12 † In the Old Testament, a father owned a great portion of ground. And he had hired servants (all around, little places, and houses, or tents) that watched over his flock. Now, when a child was born into this home, the father did not have time to take care of the son the way that he should, so he'd go and hire a tutor, or a raiser, someone to educate the child.

Now, here's where I think that the Pentecostal church made their mistake. When that son was born into the family, he was a son at birth. But his inheritance was not yet determined; it depended on his character. So, though being a son, and if he was a disobedient son, he would not inherit anything, but still, he was a son. But if he was an obedient son, he was heir to all things. And we've been taught (not only through Pentecostal realms, but through the Holiness group, and the Baptist, and what-more) that when we're born again, we're sons of God. That's true, but that, yet, that's just the beginning; then, it's your character, from then on, what means the difference.

Don't take some little emotion, some little flusteration; wait there until you are dead and buried and borned again anew in Christ Jesus, and every pulsation of your life beats out Jesus Christ, so you can see the life of Christ reflected right in your--your living, the way you go. ### EXODUS 24:8

...the penalty is death; and something has to die, to pay that penalty. So it can only be substitutionary, or we're all in death if there wasn't a substitute for us to hold on to. And man, in doing this, realized that, that he needs something to hold on to, something that he can put his hands on, something he can say, "This is it. I've got it. I know it's it."

HEBREWS 9:21-22

Moreover he sprinkled with blood both the tabernacle, and all the vessels of the ministry.

And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and without shedding of blood is no remission.

« 76 † In the Old Testament when a man want to be identified at the house of God, he took the most innocent thing he could find: a lamb. And he knowed the lamb was free from sin, 'cause it knowed no sin. And he went, and took the lamb, and put his hand upon its head, and confessed his sin; and by faith he transferred his sins on the lamb, and the innocence of the lamb back on him. And then the lamb died because it was a sinner. And the man lived by an act of faith of obeying what God said. But what did he do? He went right back out of the temple with the same desire he had when he come in, because when that blood cell is broken (which the life starts in one blood cell)... And when that blood cell was broken, the life of the lamb would not coincide or come back into the human life, because it was an animal life. The man went out with the same desire he had; so therefore, he committed sins continually all the time again.

« 77 † But there come a time when God made us an Example. And He gave us the Lord Jesus. And when a sinner puts his hands upon His precious head and confesses his sins, and his sins is transformed--or--or transferred from the sinner to Jesus and the innocence of Jesus is transferred by the Holy Ghost back into that person; he's a new creature in Christ Jesus. That's where I want to be identified. The Bible said, "He knowing no sin, was made sin for us." The reason He suffered was for our sins. And it's no more than what is right, no more than our duties to look at these things and see that these desires that we have that God put in us, to create in us, to make us to want to be like Him.

» 23 † It was therefore necessary that the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.

» 24 † For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us:

» 25 † Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest entereth into the holy place every year with blood of others;

» 26 † For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now once in the end of the world hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.

» 27 † And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment:

» 28 † So Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation.

» 28 † So Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation.
