CHAPTER TWENTY-SIX

Introduction by Mrs. Osborn

(To the following four chapters)

The first sermon I ever heard concerning divine healing was "Where Did Sickness Come From?" I had never really thought about from where sickness did come. This sermon was preached by Rev. William Branham, in Portland, Oregon, in November of 1947. I went home and related it all to my husband. I can never tell you what this message did for us and the effect it had upon our lives.

In this message, the evangelist clearly showed us, by the Word of God, that Satan was the author of sickness, disease, and pain, and that God was the author of life and health. Up until this time, I had never heard that Satan was the cause of my infirmities, but had always supposed, as I had been taught, that God had placed them on me for some mysterious purpose. When I heard that sickness was from the devil, I immediately determined to resist sickness as I would resist the devil. I hated sickness and disease as I hated Satan and his power, and certainly wanted no more of his works in my body.

Rev. Branham went on to show us our authority over the devil and over his works in the Name of Jesus Christ. When the message was over, I felt like a conqueror. My life was changed, and it has been different ever since.

A noted spiritual leader once said, "No great revival has ever come to any nation until first the church has learned to discern devils and to cast them out."

It is for this purpose that I have prevailed upon my husband to write the following message, that you, dear reader, may have a clear understanding of the work of demon-spirits today, and shall so be able to resist them, to discern them, and to cast them out in Jesus' wonderful Name.

Now, as you read, do so with an open heart; compare the contents of this sermon closely with the Scriptures, and when you discover the facts to be true, treasure them in your heart, and begin to act on them.

Rev. F. F. Bosworth says, "Every Christian can become a devil-master overnight by receiving a clear understanding of the work of demons, and of their legal defeat at Calvary."

May God bless to your heart and life the message that follows is my sincere and humble prayer.

Mrs. T. L. Osborn.
